A black and white photograph capturing a large-scale protest or rally. In the foreground, a massive, long banner is held horizontally by a dense crowd of people. The banner features hand-painted, bold text in French that reads "NON AUX DISCRIMINATIONS ALLEGÉES". The scene is set outdoors on a wide set of stone steps. In the background, a large, ornate statue or monument stands prominently. Numerous streetlights are visible along the sides of the steps. The overall atmosphere is one of a significant public gathering.
